

LEGAL NOTICE OF ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT RIDER
LEBANON UTILITIES

Lebanon Utilities hereby provides notice that on or around October 6, 2023 Lebanon Utilities (the “Utility”) in accordance with 170 IAC 1-6-1, et seq. will submit its Economic Development Rider (“ED Rider”) to the Indiana Utility Regulatory Commission (“Commission”) for approval under the Commission’s thirty-day administrative filing procedures and guidelines. This filing of the ED Rider is a rate incentive schedule developed in order to encourage all qualifying, large power users to expand and create new operations within the community. The ED Rider is available to a Qualifying Customer defined as a new or existing non-residential customer in the Utility’s service territory that establishes new operations or expands existing operations such that the new or expanded operations will result in new or additional demand of at least one (1) MW (1000 kW) at one delivery point (the “Qualifying Demand”) and the new or expanded operations has involved a capital investment of at least one million dollars ($1,000,000) with the Utility’s service territory and meets other terms and conditions as indicated in the ED Rider. The ED Rider provides rate incentive credits to the Utility from the Indiana Municipal Power Agency for Qualifying Customer’s wholesale load as follows:

Months 1-12:	20%
Months 13-24:	15%
Months 25-36:	10%
Months 37-48:	10%
Months 49-60:	5%
